A) NEW BUSINESS

B) OLD BUSINESS

- 1) Contractor Issues within City Limits – Requested by Councilmember John Carroll

In a follow-up to the February 21, 2023, New Business Item 2 – Contractor issues within City limits. From my research it appears Sec. 74-34 – Parking prohibited in specified places governs all vehicles within the street right-of-way. Specifically no person shall stop, stand or park a vehicle, except when necessary to avoid conflict within other traffic or in compliance with the directions of a police officer or traffic control device, in any of the following places:

74.34.(1) In such a manner that any part of such vehicle is protruding over a sidewalk or any part of the sidewalk area.

74.41 – Parking so as not to obstruct traffic.

- (a) No person shall stop, stand or park any vehicle in a street in such a manner or under such conditions as to leave available less than ten feet of the width of the roadway for free movement of vehicular traffic, except for

I request that this Council instruct City Manager Falls and Police Chief Currey to instruct the officers to enforce this Ordinance to prevent future traffic incidents both vehicular, pedestrian and bicycle.

ADDITIONAL MEETING INFORMATION

Public Participation. Excluding ministerial/administrative matters and certain quasi-judicial proceedings, the Council will provide an opportunity for public comment prior to the Council taking final action on an agenda item, including those matters on the consent agenda, and other propositions or items not specifically listed on the meeting agenda on which the Council proposes to take final action at the meeting.

Addressing the council generally. After first securing permission from the presiding officer, any person may address the council, in the manner specified herein at the appropriate times where oral communication is permitted as provided in the order of business appearing on the agenda adopted for the meeting.

Manner of addressing council; time limit. Each person recognized by the presiding officer and granted leave to address the council shall step up to the microphone and state his or her name for the record. Speakers shall confine their remarks to the subject of the agenda matter then under discussion by the council. Unless additional time is granted by majority vote of the council, persons making a councilmember-sponsored presentation under “presentation items by the public” shall limit such presentation to ten (10) minutes; persons speaking on any agenda item or other proposition shall limit their address to three (3) minutes; and persons speaking at the “public comment” portion of the agenda shall limit their address to three (3) minutes. All remarks shall be addressed to the council as a body and not to any individual member thereof, nor to members of the audience. No person other than the council and the person having the floor shall be permitted to enter into any discussion, either directly or through a member of the council, without the permission of the presiding officer. No question shall be asked a councilmember except through the presiding officer. The presiding officer may limit immaterial, unnecessary, or redundant comments, presentations, or requests. Once a motion is made by a councilmember, no person from the audience shall address the council.

Meeting decorum. No person shall make any personal, impertinent, slanderous, obscene, profane, inflammatory, untruthful, irrelevant, or immaterial remarks, or become boisterous while in the council chambers, or incite violence or fighting, or otherwise disturb the meeting, whether or not while addressing the council. Heckling or verbal outbursts in support or opposition to a speaker or his or her remarks and displays of anger, rudeness, ridicule, impatience, lack of respect, and personal attacks shall be prohibited.

Record for appeal. This is a public meeting. If a person decides to appeal a decision made by the Council with respect to any reviewable matter considered at such meeting, he or she will need a record of the proceedings, and for such purpose, he or she is responsible for ensuring that a verbatim record of the proceedings is made, which record includes the testimony and evidence upon which the appeal is to be based.

Persons with special needs. Anyone who needs a special accommodation for this meeting may contact the City’s Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) Coordinator at 978-4920 at least 48 hours in advance of the meeting. Invocation.* An invocation that may be offered before the official start of the Council meeting is and shall be the voluntary offering of a private citizen to and for the benefit of the Council pursuant to Resolution No. 2013-30. The views and beliefs expressed by the invocation speaker have not been previously reviewed or approved by the Council and do not necessarily represent their individual religious beliefs, nor are the views or beliefs expressed intended to suggest allegiance to or preference for any particular religion, denomination, faith, creed, or belief by the Council or the City. No person in attendance at the meeting is or shall be required to participate in any invocation and such decision whether or not to participate will have no impact on his or her right to actively participate in the public meeting.

Meeting televised and recorded. Council meetings may be broadcast live, recorded, and replayed on Comcast cable Channel 13, AT&T Channel 99 and on the City’s website www.covb.org.
